About the Journal

In an era characterized by globalization, digitization, and socio-political upheaval, the traditional boundaries between law and society have become increasingly porous. Issues such as human rights, environmental sustainability, technological innovation, and access to justice demand nuanced analysis that transcends conventional disciplinary boundaries. Our journal welcomes contributions from scholars, academicians, practitioners and students to explore groundbreaking legal theories, analyses landmark court decisions, or examine grassroots movements for social change. We aspire to publish high-quality research that advances knowledge, sparks dialogue, and informs policy debates. As we embark on this journey, we invite you to join us in exploring the rich tapestry of contemporary socio-legal issues.
